

Notes from Jukebox

Oct. 1st, 2010

We have very good news for those of you working on Thread Tails and Vapor Trails quilt entries!

Because of a minor entry form glitch and a change in a printing deadline, we can extend the entry deadline to next Tuesday, Oct. 5th at midnight! This gives you a few more days to finish up, but we will still need the traveling quilts here on or before Oct. 15th. The entries we've received are wonderful, and we thank all of you for your hard work. If you've been up pulling all-nighters, put your feet up and take a snooze – then get back to work in the morning! If you need help with adding a sleeve, click here for directions.

When submitting your application, please be patient when loading your photos. Depending on the file size, this can take some time. Grab a cup of tea and let your computer do its job! We have also made it so that you can email them to us using your usual email system if you just can't deal with the online photo submission. Remember, we also have an option where you can send the quilt and we'll photograph it, but there is an additional charge.

Don't forget that, thanks to Robert Kaufman Fabrics, Hobbs Bonded Fibers, and Road 2 California we have over $15,000 worth of prizes to give out! The judging will be in the middle of October, but the winners will not be revealed until November 10th. We'll announce the winners and show all travelers at the Hangar Bay One Gala, a black tie event celebrating the Naval Aviation Museum's new 55,000 square foot expansion. The quilts will be moved on the 11th to the Blue Angel atrium for the Blue Angel Homecoming Air Show in Pensacola on November 12th and 13th. They'll remain on display until late Sunday. Visit <http://www.naspairshow.com/> for show information. Plan to come!

If you can't make it, the entire traveling exhibit will also be shown at the Road 2 California show Jan. 20th-23rd, 2011. They'll the collections begin traveling to the Tier 1 Centennial of Naval Aviation events throughout 2011. Click here for the list – more information will be available over the next few months. If you'd like to arrange a display for your local guild or show, please fill out an exhibitor request.

Please don't hesitate to call us if you have any questions. It's such a privilege to be part of this awesome event! The quilts and their stories are wonderful, and we'll enjoy sharing them with you soon!
